Evelyn Sun awarded 2018 "Killam Graduate Teaching Assistant Award"

Submitted by parvin on May 17, 2018 - 5:20pm

Congratulations to Evelyn Sun (Ph.D candidate-Hancock Lab) on receiving 2018 Killam Graduate Teaching Assistant Award.

The Killam GTA Award recognizes graduate students who have demonstrated skills, abilities and contributions that result in a high level of respect from undergraduate students and academic or course supervisors, in several or all of the following areas: demonstrates a broad knowledge of the field, and the ability to help students actively learn new knowledge, skills and perspectives, evidenced by student/supervisor feedback and relevant grades; shows evidence of working in a collegial manner with students, faculty supervisors and graduate teaching assistant colleagues; shows evidence of incorporating new teaching skills learned through workshops, seminars and/or self-directed learning?; shows evidence of reflection and action on personal and professional development needs within the scope of the Teaching Assistant; and acts as a role model, demonstrating high standards, good listening skills and ethics.